MEMORANDUM FOR: O/DCI/PA

SUBJECT: Proposed Anthology by Mr. Dulles

1. Howard Roman, who is continuing to help Mr. Dulles on his various writings, came to see me today to advise that Mr. Dulles has a contract before him with Kenneth Giniger and Harpers to publish an anthology of true spy stories. These will be actual cases taken from published literature. They are soliciting my assistance in selecting some useful historical material in this field, and I have suggested a few titles as a starter.

2. The proposed contract, which Mr. Dulles is now considering as he has just returned from Europe, calls for about 120 thousand words--about 400 pages--and for delivery of the manuscript, with an appropriate preface by Mr. Dulles, by 1 April 1966. The contract also calls for a similar volume of spy fiction with the manuscript by 1 April 1967.
